the year, W. E. Samuelson again demon-

The amateurs put up a great race in the two-mile lap. A three-man team was formed, with three of the best riders on the track—Crebs. Halstead and Diefenbacher. The riders had no sooner lined up after the start until this combination started out to steal a lap. It did not take many kicks of the pedal to give them a clear lead of half a lap. The back field made a poor attempt to make up the lost distance, and when the riders entered the distance, and when the riders entered the scond mile, the combination was still gaining distance. Here young Thomas jumped to the lead of the back bunch and started a six lap sprint. He carried the field up Lawrence jumped and started for the tape. The leading three were caught and passed by Lawrence, who won easily. Thomas continued his sprint and came in tyre and Bergen. Umpire, Johnstone. second place after making the remarka-ble puil.
